

Catching the Wave: Taking Advantage of Carbon Awareness After COP21

Katherine Ward
Director, Communications
SNC-Lavalin Nuclear

Abstract

In an age of increasing carbon awareness, it's more important than ever that nuclear gain social license. This presentation looks at the importance of social license, what it takes to get it and shares an SNC-Lavalin example of working with the community during project execution.