

Djarot Wisnubroto

Chairman, National Nuclear Agency of Indonesia – BATAN

Dr. Djarot Sulistio Wisnubroto was born in Yogyakarta on 1st January 1963, graduated from Department of Nuclear Engineering of the University of Gadjah Mada Yogyakarta. He was appointed as Chairman of BATAN starting September 2012. Previously he was the Deputy Chairman of BATAN for Development of Technology for Nuclear Material Cycle and Engineering (2010-2012) and Head of the Radioactive Waste Technology Center of BATAN (2006-2010).

His postgraduate studies (Master's and Doctoral degree) were completed in the Nuclear Engineering School, University of Tokyo, Japan in the year 1990 and 1993. Active in several international organizations especially those in connection with radioactive waste management.