

Plenary 3B: Nuclear Opportunities, International

The panelists will outline the opportunities in key export markets for their companies' products and services. They will also discuss prospects for new build, refurbishment, and service work that they see in these markets for the Canadian nuclear supply chain in general. Panelists will address the challenges that their respective companies have faced in these markets.